傳道書 Ecclesiastes 2 : 24-26

<sup>24</sup> There is nothing better for people than to eat and drink, and to find enjoyment in their work. I also perceived that this ability to find enjoyment comes from God. <sup>25</sup> For no one can eat and drink or experience joy apart from him. <sup>26</sup> For to the one who pleases him, God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy, but to the sinner, he gives the task of amassing wealth—only to give it to the one who pleases God. This task of the wicked is futile—like chasing the wind!

I thank the Lord for bringing me to 4C church with many partners who love the Lord who zealously spread the Gospel, and working with the Lord to reap the harvest. This is the greatest grace and blessing for me since coming to 4C. I have been attending 4C church for about 16 years. At the beginning, I only attended Sunday worship and did not join any small group. I then started to join different ministries, I led children's Sunday school, and led a small group of religion class students. Later, I served as the counselor for one of the student groups, and together with Brother Zhang Zhiyuan, we led a group of students who love to dance hip-hop. At first, I was not used to their culture, but I began to love them more and more. I learned a lot in the process, I saw their passion for the Lord and their active commitment to evangelism. God has broadened my eyes and inspired me to learn from these young people.

For many of them, not long after they believed in the Lord, began to practice listening to the voice of the Holy Spirit, obeying the guidance of the Holy Spirit and praying for healing for others. These are things I haven't experienced in traditional churches in the past. Later, I joined the Evergreen Group and I thank the Lord for bringing a group of sisters with the same burden; these sisters later became the core co-workers of the Happiness Group. We serve together, support and encourage each other, and we are very happy! We are all very encouraged because God brought many Gospel friends to our group who later decided they want to be baptized. The more we serve together, the more we know that we need to continue to host Happiness Group.

4C Church has a clear goal and mission, as well as a series of discipleship training courses. These courses not only edified in the truth, but also trained in evangelism and small group shepherding, so that we can grow and mature and be fruitful. Over the past years, I have served in the Happiness Group, received disciple training, and received small groups leader trainings. We learn to be Jesus' disciples together, learn to be little shepherds, pray together, go out to battle and reap the harvest together. We also share the joy of reaping the harvest together! I feel so blessed to be able to learn and grow in this loving family!

It is no accident that each of us came to 4C church. God must have His pleasure in putting us here. Let us continue to run together and follow the Lord, let us serve joyfully as one and build up the beautiful body of Christ, so that the name of God the Father may be glorified. During this 19th anniversary celebration of 4C Church, let us encourage and fulfill the mission of the church together! Hallelujah! Praise God!

I joined 4C church in 2008, and it has been around 14 years since the day I joined. I forgot whether I was invited to the small first or to Sunday service. At the beginning, I just came to listen to the sermon just like everyone else. I was still wondering who this Jesus really is? Is he really the true God who created the heavens and the earth? I continue to attend small group gathering and Sunday service, there was a brother who taught me about the word of God so that I can be built up and get to know this All-knowing and almighty God.

In the first or second year after I became a believer, I was invited to serve. If I remember correctly, during that time I would fill out a form for the church to see what kind of service I can participate in after I believe in the Lord. I remember that my small group leader was on the Welcome Team, and he was also the leader team. I need to take this opportunity to clarify something here, please don't think that I was always the leader of the Welcome Team. Maybe many people thought I always knew how to be a leader of the Welcome Team. To be honest, greeting people maybe easy but being a leader is a whole different story. It is very stressful for me to teach the process to my colleagues, because everyone's learning ability is different, and everyone's pace is different. What should I arrange and plan accordingly? I was terrified of making mistakes or screwing up, I felt that I was unworthy and could not do well. At that time, there was a lot of pressure, and I felt that I was really bad at the beginning. I didn't know how to train new people. I didn't understand a whole lot, but I thank the Lord that I didn't give up.

Do you really think I know how to train and lead new people joining the Welcome Team? No, not really! It was only in the past few years that I really learned how to lead my co-workers to understand the hospitality ministry. In fact, it is very simple, but also difficult, because being faithful in small things is not done in one time, but to be willing to do it faithfully every day and every week, and do it for Heavenly Father.

陳長湧 弟兄

These past 14 years have also allowed me to experience how deeply my heavenly Father loves me and is willing to use me. I am surrounded by brothers and sisters who are like family, even though we may have disagreements or weaknesses at times; but in the end it is because of Jesus Christ, we can love one another again. We love, because God first loved us. God showed me love that I couldn't see before, I used to think that real love doesn't exist or it's fragile. In the past, I longed for the love from others, because I was afraid that no one would care or understand my heart, because my own family didn't understand me.

But thank God that He satisfied me with His love so that I could rest in Him. He restored my relationship with my family, so that I could forgive and reconciled with them. This is all done by the Father, thank God, all glory to the Lamb on the Throne, Jesus. AMEN.

受洗見證分享 Testimony

I am a patient with Asperger's syndrome. Although I am like Mayor Ke, I am not as good as him.

I was born in a family that has always denied me. Whenever I said something wrong outside, I would be beaten and scolded when I got back home, which made me even more afraid to speak on stage. The first time I was forced to introduce myself on stage was in the fourth grade of elementary school. I remember sitting on the ground, crying and unwilling to cooperate.

I see myself as a very considerate person, but what I think is always different from what the others think, and others will think that I wanted to stir up trouble. So I've always had some unpleasantness or discomfort among my peers.

In high school, my art teacher often talked to me about my interpersonal problems. He happened to be the instructor of the Christian fellowship club, so I was invited to join the high school fellowship. When I went to university, I also participated in the Chung Yuan Christian Fellowship. Every week we were asked to share about our week. Although I am not good at sharing, and often offend people, I found that the people in the Christian fellowship were very tolerant of me.

受洗見證分享 Testimony

Once an event went overtime, the group leader said that each person should only speak for 3 minutes. I volunteered myself to help everyone time it. Later, when a senior saw my action, she told me why it was not suitable to do so. If it was in the past, I was either scolded directly or ignored. I am grateful to the brothers and sisters in the fellowship who are willing to tell me about others' feelings.

I have always had some problems expressing myself to people, and I always omitted many details, which made me sound illogical. But with the encouragement of brothers and sisters in Christ, I gradually became less afraid. I am willing to get along with people, and I have begun to better understand how other people feel. I found that I am less and less afraid to get along with people, and after the breakthrough, I feel happier. I continue to experience the help from God to overcome the obstacles in my life and breakthrough all kinds of difficulties.

In the past, I had very low self-esteem and was afraid of being rejected. But since I learned to pray before doing anything and with brothers and sisters praying with me after joining the cell group, I began to have more faith in God and am willing to let God be the help of my life.

This is my testimony. Thanks to the Lord, and Thank you all!
